

Mentorship and Training of Anangu Youth by Elders in a culturally significant pursuit: visual arts

Jude Crabtree and Geoff Deans

Anangu Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara Lands

On the Lands A newsletter for APY communities

APY-Ku Tjukurpa

Spring Edition 2009
Volume 1, Issue 9

Artists as Mentors in Fregon/Kaltjiti

Wayne with his art work

The Kaltjiti Artists as Mentors program is an initiative that encourages young artists to improve their skills under the watchful eye and quiet discipline of Elder artists. The initiative is a joint venture between Kaltjiti Arts and Crafts, Fregon Community and Anangu Gateways.

Contents

- Pg. 2 Softball Grand Final
- Pg. 3 & 4 Football Grand Final
- Pg. 5 Gavin Wanganeen
- Pg. 6 TAFE update
- Pg. 7 Aboriginal Leadership Register
- Pg. 8 Infrastructure Projects
- Pg. 9 Zero Waste SA
- Pg. 10 Wilija Students
- Pg. 11 Riding at Double Tank
- Pg. 12 & 13 Anangu Gateways
- Pg. 14 Better World Arts
- Pg. 15 Spirit Festival ~ 2009
- Pg. 16 Remote Service Delivery Update
- Pg. 17 Windmill Productions
- Pg. 18 Music on the Lands
- Pg. 19 Miss Kunmama Wilson
- Pg. 20 & 21 Housing SA
- Pg. 22 & 23 Three Communities

During the one week program, Elders mentored in a constructive and respectful environment to promote positive